Lively Scenes in the Markets-Prices of Dinner Stuffs.

That mysterious and much-talked-of personage known variously as St. Nick, Santa Claus, St. Nicholas and Kris Kringle, is exercising a conderful influence over the metropolis to-day. True, his absolute reign does not begin until oldnight to-night, but his ambassadors are busy in making preparations for his arrival during the night, and consequently the day before Christmas is as full of activity as the mer-ries, of all bolidays itself. Expressmen will be busy far into the night and to-morrow handling and delivering mysterious looking parcels, and every letter-carrier bears a double load to-day.

Mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers are excited and exchanging confidential pods and winks and jealously guarding closets and outof-the-way places in a manner that is entirely able to the little ones.

And the children-Heaven bless 'en more excited than snybody, for to-night is the ume when they hang up the Liggest stocking they can find and firmly resolve to keep an eye spen and, if possible, catch the merry old fel-low in his set or descending the chimney and filling their stockings.

For weeks they have counted the days to Christmas, and now that it is almost here their excitement amounts to almost a fever. Parcularly is this true of the thousands of little walfs, who will to-morrow attend THE EVEN-WORLD Christmas Tree festivals to be held The inmates of all the charitable and penal ons of the city will to-morrow partake of the festal pleasures through the direct an effective means of big dinners. The newsboys will enjoy their annual banquet at the News boys' Home, Duane and New Chambers streets, at 7 P. M. to-morrow.

Dr. Edward McGlynn's Christmas festivities will be greatly heightened by an act of many of his old parishioners and personal friends.

The doctor was requested yesterday to come to the Cooper Institute, room 27, at 7,39 o'clock last evening. He responded ponctually and was mot there by a large crowd of old friends and new. Then Dr. Henry Carey stepped forward and presented to Dr. McGiynn a purse of $1,600, as a Chrisimas remembrance.

The Doctor's emotion was very apparent, and the crowd releved him of the necessity of speechmaking by cheering till the roof shook.

These appointments were made as require nity citizens, the petitioners in this case being pearly all members of the Real Estate Exchange, headed by its President, George R.

Of the new Commissioners, Messre. Spencer and Starin are Republicans and the other three are Democrata.

Messrs. Steinway and Starin were members of the Commission which Mayor Grant appointed last Spring, as was also the late August Belmont. Mr. Spencer is one of the banking firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co., and is a railroad expert.

Eugene L. Bushe is a lawyer at 150 Bro way, and Frederic P. Olcott is the President of the Central Trust Company.

Mayor Grant's appointment of a commission under the act of 1875 need not be taken as an indication that he despairs of the passage of a new rapid transit act at the coming session of the Legislature.

It is rather an indirect pledge to the Legislature that he will appoint men of like character as Commissioners under any act which it may man which shall accord to the city of New York the privilege of home rule by allowing the Mayor the power of appointment. As on Thanksgiving, one of the principal features of Christmas, is the dinner. Naturally enough, then, the busiest places in the city to-day were the big markets.

The scene at Washington Market was an implicing one to-dayolity and positify seekers. Big plomp turkeys looked their nansaomest with bright red paper rosettes nearly fastend to the point immediately over the time-honored twishbone. "Meats of all kinds were attractively dressed and decorated with evergreen and holly, and fat little pies, pimply with crabberries, held old apples in their mouths." They was the most popular bird at prices. They was the most popular bird at prices from 16 to 20 cents a pound. Chickens ranged from 16 to 20 cents and lowis torought 13 to 16 cents. New York, Boston, Jersey and Philadelphia ducks were quoted at 15 to 20 cents and More sought 25 cents and 15 to 20.

White squales soid for $2.75 a dozen and dark squabs for $4. Capons brought 25 cents and 15 to 20 ce
